*And He will raise you up on eagles' wings,
Bear you on the breath of dawn,
Make you shine like the sun,
And hold you in the palm of his hand.*

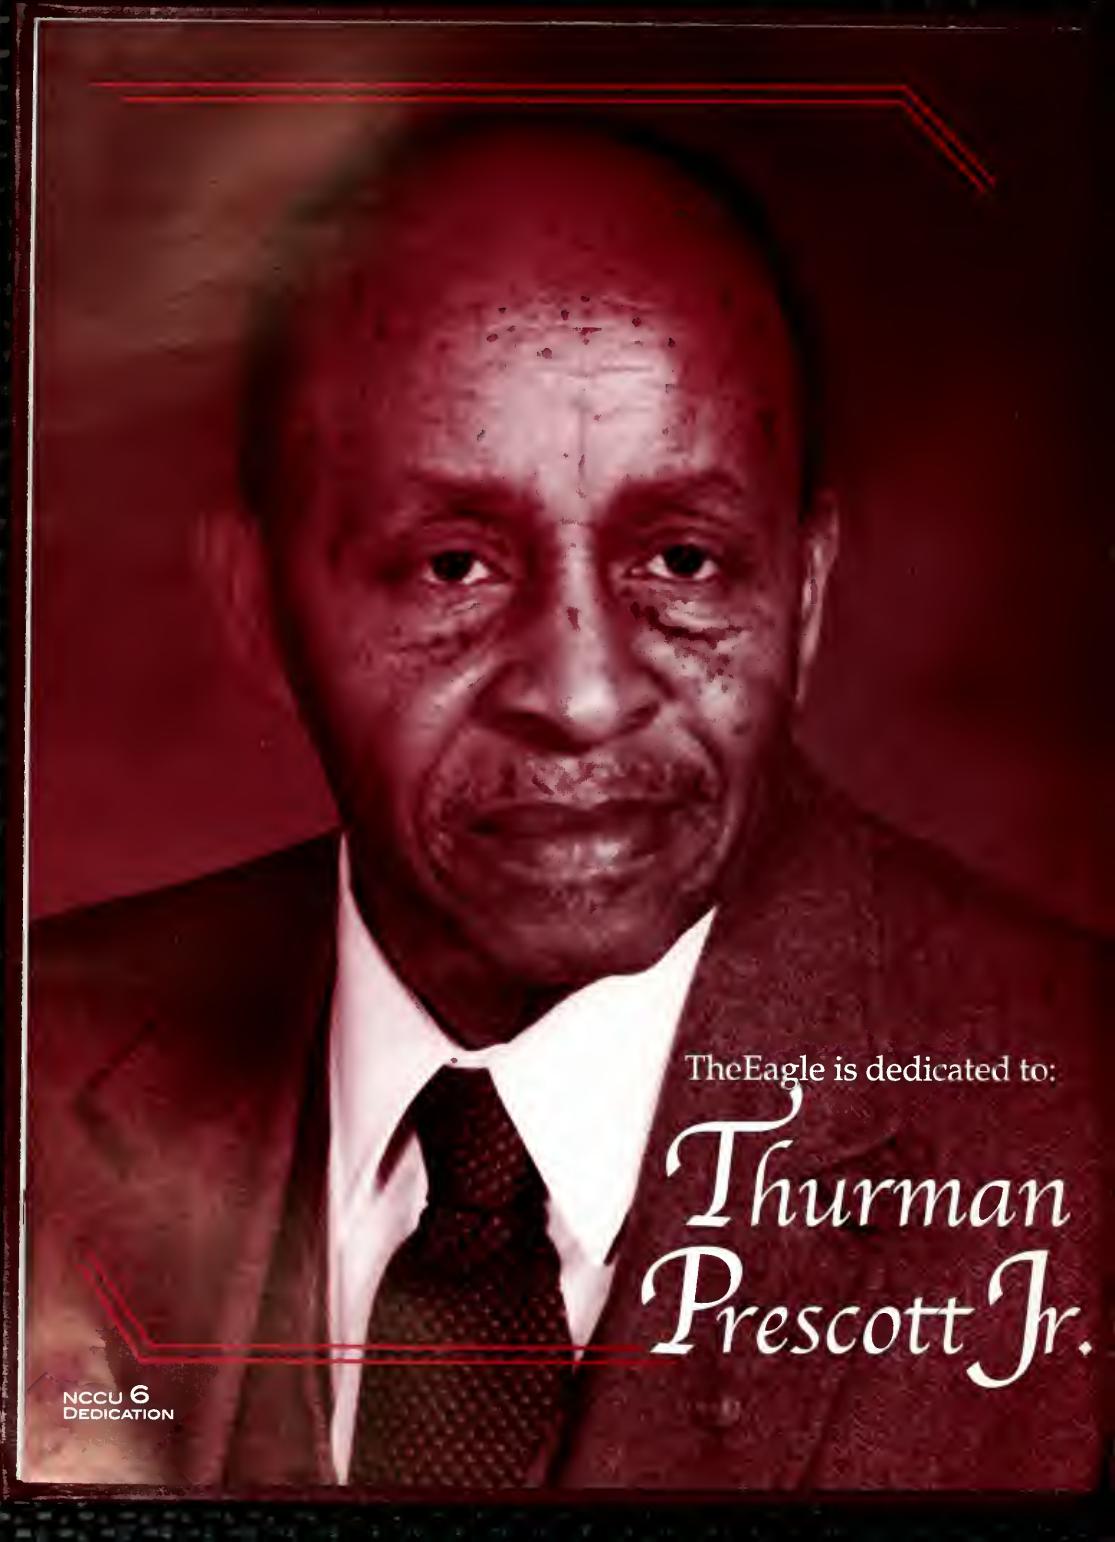

*The snare of the fowler
Will never capture you, and famine will bring you
no fear,
Under His refuge
His faithfulness your shield.*

*You need not fear the terror of night,
Nor the arrow that flies by day;
Through thousands fall about you,
Near you it shall not come.*

*And He will raise you up on eagles' wings,
Bear you on the breath of dawn,
Make you shine like the sun,
And hold you in the palm of his hand.*

NCCU 6
DEDICATION

The EAGLE is proud to dedicate this yearbook to Mr. Thurman Prescott Jr., affectionately known as "Mr. P." He is the Director of the Alfonso Elder Student Union and Student Activities Board under the Department of Student Affairs. He has been the only director of the Student Union since its inception in 1966. Mr. Prescott's experience as a Program Director of Student Unions began at his alma mater, Southern University A&M College in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, later known as Southern University. He served as its director for three years where he earned a B.A. degree in Geography and Economics. Prior to entering Southern, he also served his country in the United States Navy as a Hospital Corpsman.

Mr. Prescott has accomplished numerous achievements in his life and has professional affiliations with following organizations: The International Association of College Unions, the National Association for Campus Activities and the National Association of Student Affairs Professional Workers (NAPW).

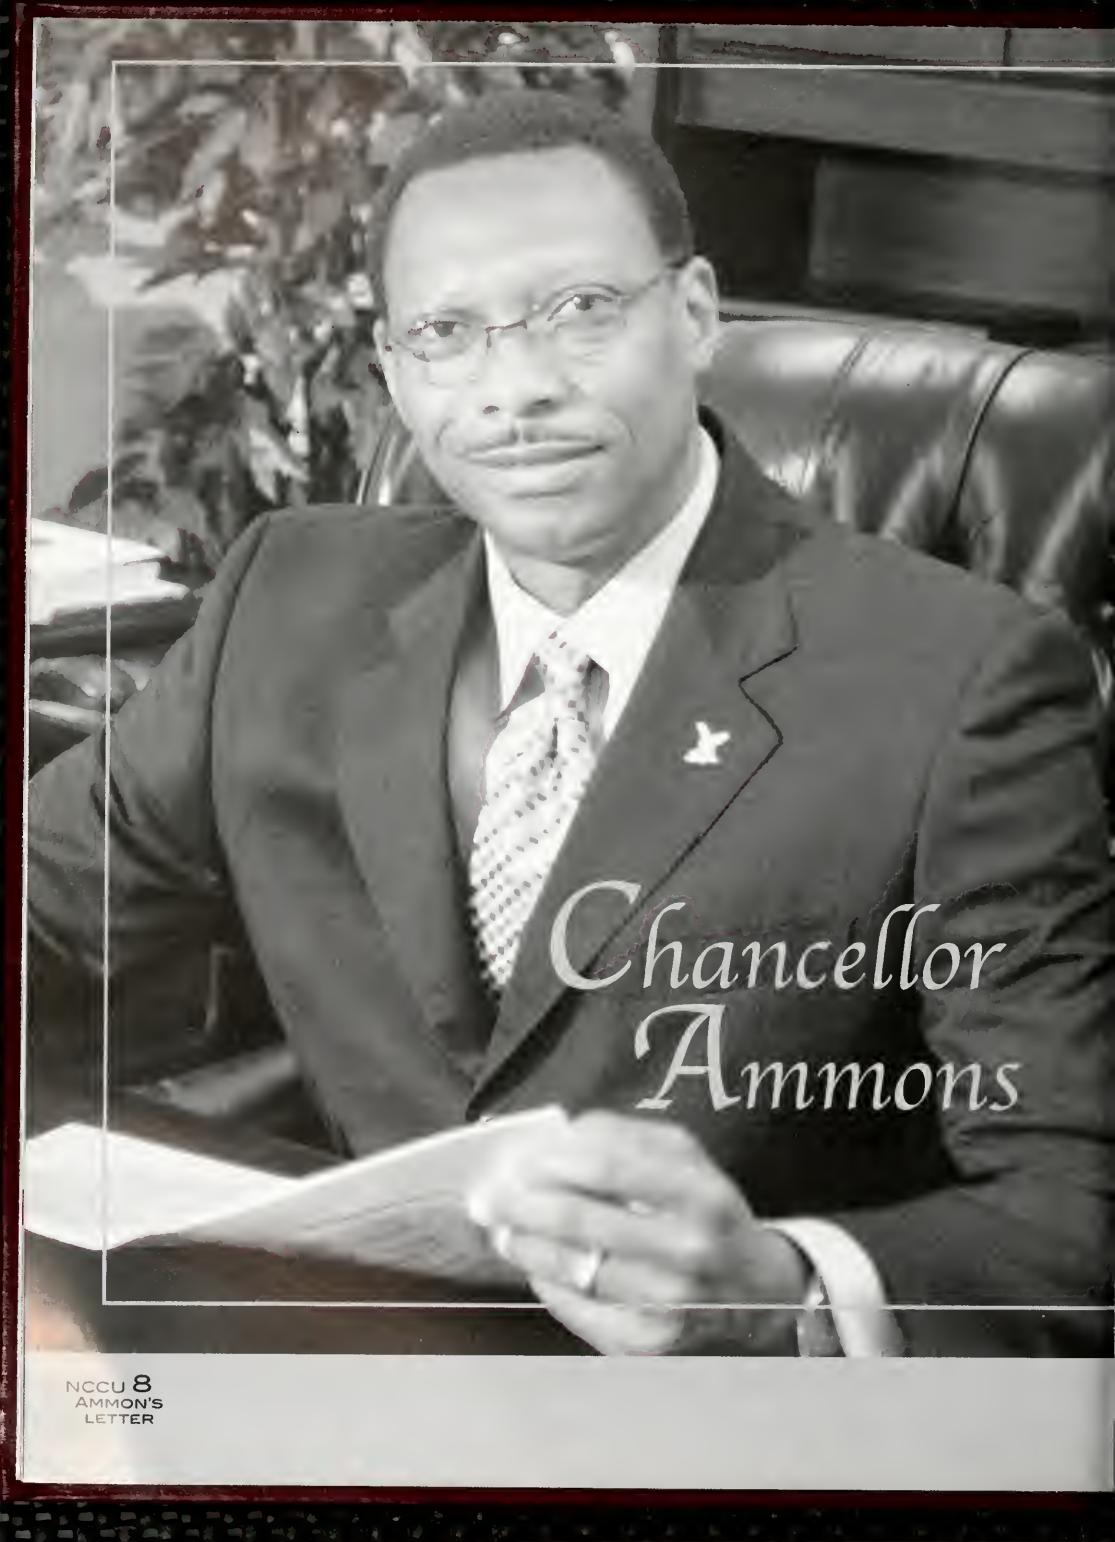

Since coming to North Carolina Central University, he has served as advisor to the Undergraduate Chapter of Alpha Phi Omega National Service Fraternity (1969-1974), Advisor to Phi Alpha Kappa Social Fellowship student group (1987-1990) and the Efficiency Task Force (1987). For the past four years, he has served as Chairman of NCCU's Employee Appreciation Committee. This event honors the employees of NCCU with a day of festivities planned specifically for the hard-working staff of NCCU. It's the one time of the year where the faculty serves the needs of staff, developing strong relationships between the two groups to better serve the primary element...it's students. This type of endeavor earned him the Outstanding University Employee Service Award, Administrator Category in 1990.

Mr. Prescott's primary focus is for the enhancement of student life through numerous student activities. He and his staff, are responsible for sponsoring Spring Fling, Cultural Excursions to historical and athletic events, and various carnivals throughout the year.

He is married to Mrs. Gloria Prescott, his college sweetheart. They are the proud parents of four children. However, Mr. Prescott has served as surrogate father for hundreds of NCCU students. He is a quiet, unassuming man whose door is always open to students, faculty and staff and never asks for anything in return.

He's the gentle giant whom you will see on special occasions in the Student Union standing in the background dressed in Maroon and Gray. He is making sure that everyone is happy and having fun or learning during the various lecture series held in the Union. It is our pleasure to dedicate this book to Mr. Prescott, the Father of Alfonso Elder Student Union.

Chancellor Ammons

NCCU 8
AMMON'S
LETTER

Dear Students of North Carolina Central University,

It is always an honor to address one of the most outstanding student bodies in America. For the past year, NCCU has been flying high through the support of its faculty, students, and administration. Enrollment has reached an all-time high with 6,521 students enrolled, marking a 13.3 percent increase over last year's figures. For the first time in the University's history, we recruited our first National Achievement Scholars, America's best and brightest minority students. The University also launched the NCCU Business and Industry Cluster to provide you with internship and permanent job opportunities in corporate America.

So the theme for the yearbook, "Fly Like an Eagle" is very appropriate. We're flying high like the majestic Eagle to provide opportunities that will help our graduates to continue a legacy of leadership.

To the graduating Class of 2003, no matter what you face in life, you have the ability to achieve and the tenacity to overcome any obstacles. Let your victories be examples of what can be accomplished when talented individuals make a decision to succeed at all costs.

I would like to extend special thanks to the Yearbook Staff for producing a dynamic collection of memories for us to cherish today and for the years to come.

Finally, I charge you to never sway from your commitment to our founder's mission of truth and service.

Sincerely,

James H. Ammons, Chancellor

"But they that wait upon the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint."

-Isaiah 40:31

Editor-In-Chief, three words that cannot begin to describe what this position entails. It has been my distinct pleasure to assist in the production of the 2002-2003 North Carolina Central University Yearbook entitled "THE EAGLE." The yearbook's purpose is to showcase the greatest moments of NCCU during the past year. My goal was to develop a yearbook that would indeed exemplify NCCU at its best. At the time I took the position, I had no idea that I would completely lose myself in this project. As a result, I came to not only love the job, but acquired greater love for my NCCU family.

We as students, always learn a great deal about ourselves and others when we are put to a challenging test. Through this experience, I was given many opportunities to discover my strengths and weaknesses. My ability to maintain a strong mind was by the grace of God, through friends, faculty and staff who were consistently supporting me. There were many times I wanted to give up and leave this endeavor. But I knew I could not, the primary reason, because I AM AN EAGLE...and true EAGLES, never give up. I would have never been able to complete this book without a wonderful team working along with me. I would like especially thank all the following persons: First, I want to thank God for all he has given me.

To the staff of The Eagle Yearbook, you have done an outstanding job and I want to thank each one of you for the hard work and dedication that you contributed to this book. To the Yearbook Advisors: Ms. Sonya Scott, who fed me, you called me your own, and took charge when needed; Ms. Claudette Free, I thank you for taking me as a freshman, by calling me your "special child", and always telling me the truth, no matter what; Dr. Melvin Carver (Massa) I must say, without a doubt, you are a man of many words. You always kept everything "real". For you I have the upmost respect. Thanks to Mr. Thurman Prescott and the Alfonso Elder Student Union staff; Mr. Kyle Serba of Athletics, Ms. Alonda Thomas of Public Relations, Ms. Annie Bennett of the Art Department, Bobby Murray of Technological Support, and Ms. Emma Mosby of Diversity and Multicultural Affairs. I would also like to thank the Office of the Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs which includes Mr. Roland Gaines, Ms. Arnissa Harris and Ms. Patricia Nelson. To Mr. Jonathan Hill, your friendship and brotherhood helped me mature over the past three years. I want to give a special thanks to the Prescott family for their support and dedication.

The one person whom I am most grateful to along with the others mentioned above is Ms. Jamila R. Davenport, my Guardian Angel. Without your talent, ambition, and humor, this experience would have been very boring and tedious. Your expertise has made this yearbook what it is. It has been my distinct honor to work alongside you this year. To the Seniors, please consider this as your personal time capsule doing your senior year at NCCU. Hopefully as you look back at your years at NCCU, this yearbook will bring back tears and fond memories.

North Carolina Central University is a comprehensive university offering programs at the undergraduate and graduate levels. It is the nation's first public liberal arts institution founded for African Americans. The University maintains a strong liberal arts tradition and a commitment to academic excellence in an adverse educational and cultural environment. It seeks to encourage intellectual curiosity and to enhance the academic and professional skills of its students and faculty.

The mission of the University is to prepare students academically and professionally, and to promote consciousness of social responsibility and dedication to the advancement of the general welfare of the people of North Carolina, the United States, and the world. The University will serve its traditional clientele of African-American students; and it will expand its commitment to meet the educational needs of a student body that is diverse in race and other socioeconomic attributes.

DAMIEN RUFFIN
STUDENT BODY PRESIDENT

To My Fellow Eagles,

This year has been one filled with transition and progression. Our campus and classrooms are filled with brilliant minds. As Student Body President, I have worked hard to bring about facility improvements and technological advancements that will empower and motivate the students and faculty of North Carolina Central University now and in the future.

We are growing as a university.

Building renovations and new buildings are in the plans for the coming year. As our physical grounds begin to expand and improve, I look forward to seeing our student body raise the bar of achievement. North Carolina Central University is making a statement across the nation as a positive place to matriculate. We are under the nation's microscope and the world is expecting us to produce the brightest minds.

I hope that the blueprints that have been laid will be put into action by those who follow. North Carolina Central University is our alma mater and its successes are a reflection of the student body. Strive to make North Carolina Central University reflect you.

Sincerely,
Damien Ruffin

The Student Government affords students the opportunity to practice self-imposed responsibility and promotes training in self-governance. After registration, all students are eligible to become members of the Student Government Association and are encouraged to participate in the selection of their representatives.

The elected representatives include the president and the vice president of the Student Government Association and Miss North Carolina Central University. In addition, each respective class elects twelve officers that include the Class President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, and seven members of the Student Legislature and the Class Queens.

Other members include: Executive Board members appointed by the Student Government President, Committee members on Congress and Executive Board and the Student and the Student Judicial Court.

Miss North Carolina Central University 2002 - 2003

Candis Nicole Jones

Dear Eagle Family,

It has been an esteemed honor to represent the student body as Miss North Carolina Central University. During my reign, the most rewarding experience has been discovering the spirit of the university through you, the student body.

I would like to thank the administration, faculty, staff, and alumni for your constant words of encouragement. To my advisors, Ms. Yuanda Tibbs, Ms. Rashaunte' Hinnant, and Ms. Natasha Harris, thank you for sacrificing countless hours to assure the success of my reign. I would also like to thank my Royal Court. It has been a great joy working with you, and I am truly appreciative of your hard work and commitment. To my family, your unconditional love is a blessing, for you are truly the wind beneath my wings. God has placed me in a nurturing nest of love, and I thank him everyday for that. To the student body, please know that I am thankful for your giving me the opportunity to fulfill one of my dreams.

During my reign as Miss NCCU, I have learned several lessons that I wish to share with you. Take charge of your life, be aggressive but pleasant, determined but reasonable, and you will always succeed. Recognize that obstacles will appear during your journey, but you can overcome anything if you are a determined individual. Lastly, please remember that those who fail are those that never try.

My role as Miss North Carolina Central University has been a growing experience and a journey that I wish would never end. As I walk the sloping hills and the verdant green, I only hope that I have preserved the legacy of North Carolina Central University.
God Bless You All!

Yours in Truth and Service,
Candis Jones
Miss North Carolina Central University, 2002-2003

Eagle Greetings!

It is with great honor that I have had the opportunity to serve the NCCU community as Mr. North Carolina Central University for the year of 2002-2003. I am grateful for the opportunity to participate in the revival of the Mr. North Carolina Central University Pageant, and I look forward to its continued success. Positive male representation is imperative in today's society, in particular, at historically black colleges and universities.

I charge the North Carolina Central University family to soar like Eagles above all obstacles, and never become satisfied with mediocrity. Embrace and support the vision of our founder Dr. James E. Shepard and of our Chancellor Dr. James Ammons. Avoid wearing a scarlet letter of ignorance, yet challenge yourselves to succeed in order to increase the overall betterment of your family, friends, country, and institution.

I would like to extend a heart-filled thank you to the students, faculty, and staff that have supported me in my endeavors during my reign. All of you have assisted me in my efforts to promote a positive image for African-American men. Truth and Service is the light and mission of this great University; HOLD UP THE LIGHT.

Blessings and Peace,

Rande'l Travar Johnson

NCCU GREEK ORGANIZATIONS

The mission of the office of Greek Affairs is to facilitate and to integrate students learning. Greek Affairs assist members to receiving leadership skills, appropriate social interaction and educational programming that will enhance their knowledge and understanding of that which is essential for academic success and personal development.

Greek letter organizations at North Carolina Central University develop and maintain membership programs, which complement and strengthen the mission of the University. They assist new students in their orientation to demands of higher education and encourage member to adopt and maintain high academic standards.

Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Incorporated was founded January 9, 1914 at Howard University, Washington, D.C. The most important aspect of this organization is established in its principles brotherhood, scholarship, and service- what we believe in, what we attempt to promote and the goals towards which we strive. The Gamma Gamma Chapter here at NCCU was chartered May 9, 1949 and since then has applied its motto: "Culture for Service and Service for Humanity."

Today Phi Beta Sigma has blossomed into an "international organization of leaders". No longer a single entity, the Fraternity has now established the Phi Beta Sigma Educational Foundation, the Phi Beta Sigma Housing Foundation, the Phi Beta Sigma Federal Credit Union, and the Phi Beta Sigma Charitable Outreach Foundation. Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc., founded in 1920 with the assistance of Phi Beta Sigma, is the sister organization. No other fraternity and sorority are as constitutionally bound as the Sigmas and Zetas. We both enjoy and foster a mutually supportive relationship.

Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc. was founded on January 16, 1920, as the result of encouragement given by their brothers, Phi Beta Sigma. With our five founding members, Zeta Phi Beta created a sorority that would reach educated college women from all around the world. Zeta women give services through activities such as:

- Community Service Projects
- Providing scholarships to women that are college bound
- Contributing to organized charities
- Promoting Voter Education and Registration
- Providing tutorial services that enhance literacy within the community.

As being the first sorority to establish charters within Africa and forming both adult and youth auxiliary groups, we are women who desired to follow the ideas of finer womanhood, scholarship, and sisterly love. The Gamma Gamma Chapter was founded in 1941 at North Carolina Central University.

Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Incorporated, the first collegiate fraternity for African-American males, was founded on December 4, 1906 on the campus of Cornell University, in Ithaca, New York. The Gamma Beta Chapter of Alpha Phi Alpha was chartered at the North Carolina College for Negroes on May 23, 1941. Billy Adkins, Theodore Bell, Sylvester Carter, William P. Malone, and Ward Parham chartered the chapter.

Presently, Gamma Beta continues to achieve the reputation as one of the most productive chapters in Alpha Phi Alpha around the state. Alpha Men are productive, chapter members are involved in many activities on NCCU's campus. These activities include Phi Beta Lambda Business Organization, Pi Sigma Alpha Political Science National Honor Society, Junior Class Council, NAACP, Student Government Association, and Golden Key International Honor Society. Gamma Beta members worked with many programs, such as Study Habits forum, a program on the history of our university, a GRE Seminar, stadium sweep outs, and the Parliamentary procedure program.

The Gamma Beta Chapter of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Incorporated will continue to be leaders on the campus of NCCU and forever be men of distinction. First of all, We are Servants of all, and We shall Transcend all!

Alpha Lambda was chartered April 25, 1941 by Mae Henry Alston, Frances E. Atkins, M. Blanc, Maria Burke, Reba Cooper, Wyonella Creft, E. Crowder, Rosemary Plummer Fitts, Floreta Irma, Evelyn M. Jones, Edna Kathryn Lanier, Dorothy M. Parson, Hortense Person, Betty M. Pretty, Ida Smith, Thelma Giles Smith, and Hortense Wilson. Although Alpha Lambda was chartered in 1941, many lines had crossed at the university through the Durham Alumnae Chapter.

Alpha Lambda has dedicated themselves to community service throughout the past 69 years. Early projects such as donating clothing, food, and money to the needy, visits to seniors, and the education of children are projects that remain top priorities to the chapter. For several years, Alpha Lambda has held the record for the highest academic averages on campus among Greek organizations and has been recognized at numerous Honors convocations. In addition, with three campus queens currently active, Alpha Lambda has always been graced with the "best of the best" by claiming SGA Presidents, University Royalty, and many other student leaders.

THE TAU PSI CHAPTER OF OMEGA PSI PHI FRATERNITY, INCORPORATED

On Friday evening November 17, 1911, three Howard University undergraduate students, with the assistance of their faculty adviser, gave birth to the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity. From the initials of the Greek phrase meaning, "Friendship is essential to the soul", the name Omega Psi Phi was chosen as their motto. Manhood, scholarship, perseverance, and uplift were adopted as cardinal principles.

Omega Psi Phi Fraternity has initiated more than 130,000 members and has over 550 chapters in forty-four states, the District of Columbia, Europe, Asia, Africa, the Bahamas, the Virgin Islands and Panama.

THE DEBUTANTE AND BOYZ-2-MEN MENTORING PROGRAM

Three years ago, Professor Mary H. Scott of the Department of Human Sciences established and registered the Debutante and Boyz-2-Men Mentoring Board at North Carolina Central University. The membership consisted of students who wished to serve their university by extending themselves to middle and high school students as mentors. The goal of the program is to establish a cohesive relationship with the mentee and his/her parent(s) or guardian(s). The program generates a feeling of belonging, self-direction, pride, and focus. It also connects the community to NCCU.

History is the study of the chronological record of significant events, past and present. The past is the link between yesterday and tomorrow. Many scholars have dedicated their lives to the fostering of this link between oral history, the written word, and the sciences, philosophies and the religions of our modern age. Caulbert A. Jones, a past professor of history at NCCU was such a scholar.

The Caulbert A. Jones History Club is an undergraduate history organization dedicated to fostering the study of the past. The club achieves this primary objective by inviting guest scholars to share their research, by attending scholarly professional conferences, and by presenting student research to peers, staff, faculty, and administration. The C.A. Jones History Club is also a service organization. Over the years, the members of the club have volunteered service at convalescent homes, hospitals, and the public schools.

We all have a link to the past. Our future is linked to the study of history. We have a story older than the written word. It is buried within the story of our ancestors. Our societies have always sought the wisdom of the ancients. As members of the C.A. Jones History Club we are a catalyst for the continued study of the past.

During Fall 2001, Adrian White and Rowland Yearwood created a campus-only television series. The TV series covers issues important to African-Americans. In addition, each show is formatted to include entertainment, campus events, and educational interests. The catchy title, "NC Sees U", speaks to the nature of the program that captures student life on NCCU's campus.

One of the most interesting aspects of the show is the introduction. The introduction combines cartoons and music reminiscent of a FUBU Fat Albert and Friends commercial. The action usually centers on locations like the dorms, the yard, and Communications Building. As a result of this TV series, White and Yearwood hope they will inspire other mass communication students to create new shows for campus television. Until then, be sure to catch NC SEES U daily from 2-3p.m.

In 1989, Honda Campus All-Star Challenge was established for unique academic competition for America's Historically Black Colleges and Universities. All 89 four-year degree-granting HBCUs in U.S. are eligible for the program. Educational partners are the Association of College Unions International (ACUI) and NAFEO, the National Association for Equal Opportunity in Higher Education. The program involves campus competition, regionally based "Sectional Playoffs" and a National Championship Tournament.

The present format challenges students at the first 64 HBCUs to complete the requirements to advance to a face-to-face National Championship Tournament. Every spring, students, coaches, campus coordinators, volunteers, HBCU presidents, members of the Association of College Unions International, and the National Association for Equal Opportunity in Higher Education gather to crown one national champion.

The Honda Campus All-Star Challenge program is now in its fourteenth year. Honda has committed over $3.5 million dollars in grants to participating HBCUs.

The purpose of the Residence Hall Association (RHA) is to provide representation for communication between campus residents and the university administration. The Residence Hall Association focuses on three main areas: programming, policy recommendations, and general issues and concerns within the dormitories.

The association works with the Department of Residential life to build a community atmosphere on NCCU's campus. All students who live in on-campus housing are eligible for membership in the Residence Hall Association. This year's RHA successfully hosted programs in collaboration with other campus organizations. The events included Community3, the haunted hall, community service projects and residence hall programs. RHA is an active member of the North Carolina Association of Residence Halls and has participated in annual conference as well as hosted the Fall Summit for NCARH in October.

This student ran radio station serves over 3,000 plus student population of NCCU by providing music and information through its closed circuit cable network channel 9. Additionally, AudioNet can be heard worldwide over the Internet. AudioNet's main purpose is to give students interested in radio and broadcast journalism, a chance to learn about radio in an educational and fun environment. The staff and DJ's working with AudioNet are English majors concentrationing in electronic media. The staff is comprised of an academically diverse group of students who have a genuine interest in radio. AudioNet's format is free form including all genres of music such as R&B, Hip-Hop, Go-Go, Alternative, and Reggae. AudioNet also offers news, entertainment, and sports programming. Students, after graduation have gone to work professionally at commercial radio and television stations.

Through training and application of skills, AudioNet students have obtained internships with local media such as Radio One of Raleigh, Atlanta, and Washington, DC. Students have interned at WNCU 90.7FM, Fox 50, WTVD, and the Spectator Magazine. Throughout the academic school year, AudioNet sponsors several events. One such event, Get To Know Ya Sundays, (GTKYS) is a student-networking social occasion that features live music and performances by local artists.

The Biology Club is named in honor of Dr. E. E. Just to recognize his accomplishments and encourage students to follow his example. Dr. Just was one of the most important African-American men of the early 20th century. Despite racial discrimination and other obstacles, he made significant contributions to scientific research and earned an international reputation as an experimental marine biologist. Dr. Just was an instructor at Howard University, a Julius Rosenwald Fellow in Biology of the National Research Council, a recipient of the first Springarn Medal awarded, and cofounder of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity.

In the spirit of his many accomplishments, the E.E. Just Biology Club exists to promote academic excellence and to provide a means of building awareness of career opportunities in the field of biology. In addition, the club participates in a range of extracurricular activities.

MOTIVATIONAL TASK FORCE PROGRAM

The Motivational Task Force Program was designed to expand the occupational outlook of students in traditionally black colleges and universities. North Carolina Central University organized its first Motivational Task Force Program in 1973.

The program gives students the opportunity to interact with professionals who are working in non-traditional jobs and are representatives of major business, industrial, and governmental organizations. The program's goal of strengthening the understanding of job opportunities through direct contact with successful role models is consistent with the University's focus.

Each year, a growing number of high school and college students get the opportunity to discuss career related issues with professional motivational consultants and build relationships through mentoring programs and other experiential opportunities.

NORTH CAROLINA CENTRAL UNIVERSITY DANCE GROUP

The NCCU Dance Group, a nationally known troupe, provides workshops, classes, spot performances, thematic programs, and demonstrations for all ages. The purpose of the Dance Group is to develop an appreciation for dance as an art form through individual participation and provide situations that will allow for a need for excellence and a need for self-discipline.

The group performs modern jazz, character, interpretive, creative dance, lyrical, liturgical, and more. The dance group consists of female and male dancers who perform for the development of better technique and informs the audience about what's happening in dance. Membership is open to all students enrolled at NCCU who are interested in dance and who can be governed by its constitution.

NORTH CAROLINA CENTRAL UNIVERSITY TOURING CHOIR

The North Carolina Central University Touring Choir is one of North Carolina's prime cultural assets and one of the nation's outstanding choral ensembles surpassing many professional choirs in sophistication and versatility. The choir receives excellent reviews from musicians and critics wherever it appears. The extensive repertoire of sacred and secular music ranges from traditional classic church music, anthems, masses, and oratorios to jazz contemporary gospel styles.

The choir annually tours the midwest and east coast during the spring semester. The group has performed at Carnegie Hall and the Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts with the New Harlem Chamber Orchestra and in Raleigh, NC with the North Carolina Symphony Orchestra. The choir is a major performance ensemble on campus and provides music for formal university functions throughout the academic year.

NORTH CAROLINA CENTRAL UNIVERSITY VOCAL ENSEMBLE

Jubilee Singers, under the direction of Mr. Grover Wilson, Jr., is the newest addition to the music department. The mission of the 12 member ensemble which is composed of the most advances members of the Music Department, is to preserve the Negro Spiritual in it's authentic form.

In the preface of his book, Thirty Spirituals, Hall Johnson reveals, "The Negro Spiritual is a distant type of music which resembles no other and therefore requires special treatment in performance. The singer who has no first-hand acquaintance with authentic racial style should have...familiar with this music at its source."

Dr. Brennetta Simpson, music chair, has determined that Mr. Wilson, an accomplished pianist, composer, vocalist, and scholar of the spiritual, is the perfect coach to lead students and the NCCU community into a revitalized awareness of the richness and power of this vocal medium. The spiritual is the ultimate nexus of history, struggle, heart, and the soul of an artistic people.

A major in English prepares students for a variety of careers and for continued personal, civic, and professional development. All courses offered through the department enhance skills in reading, writing, and critical thinking. The department's offerings and related activities also increase students' understanding of vital cultural and aesthetic achievements of writers throughout the ages. A student majoring in English must complete one of four concentrations within the general English program or the English secondary education program.

The general English program concentrations are:

- 1. Literature
- 2. Journalism
- 3. Electronic media
- 4. Media communication

The National Award Winning NCCU Department of Theatre has been unique over the years because of the program's capacity to transform a creative notion about the theatre into practical knowledge and skills. North Carolina Central University's Department of Theatre is designed to satisfy the needs of a broad range of enthusiastic students; to give them the widest possible exposure to man's accomplishments in theatre and to experiences that will develop them as capable theatre practitioners.

The annual season, four major productions, is a highly significant cultural amenity for the university, the community and state. NCCU's productions tours major North Carolina's high schools and colleges. This affords students the opportunity to share their art with other audiences, many of which have limited opportunities to see live and culturally diverse theatre. The comprehensive program of the Department of Theatre at NCCU has satisfied many of its intended goals by producing students who have succeeded in making theatre a practical part of their lives.

Art majors experienced activities during the academic year designed to motivate, inspire curiosity, and improve their perspectives to create art. The Art Museum in 2002-03 provided unique exhibitions of Joseph Norman and Minnie Evans. In the department, the faculty lecture series included Bill Siegmann, curator for the Brooklyn Museum of Art and discussions from faculty travel abroad. During the spring, students engaged in a workshop utilizing media and computer software. Freshmen toured the art scene at the Capital Center, Washington D.C. and for community service students produced mural paintings in local areas.

Harrington, Jr.

*James, Sometimes you appeared to be two people in one.
We've often wondered how you accomplished all you have done.*

*When times became dark you fell to your knees,
And cried My Lord, please help please!
And God responded because He loves you so much,
And He said to Satan, He's mine...Do not touch!
You reached for the stars and touched the sky,
You stayed focused on God, who reigns on high.*

To our son, you proved that you could do All things in Christ Jesus who strengthens you. We love you, and are so proud of you.

I'M FOLLOWING THE PATH
GOD LAID FOR ME.
I TOOK HIS HAND WHEN I HEARD HIM CALL;
I TURNED MY BACK AND LEFT IT ALL.
I COULD NOT STAY ANOTHER DAY,
TO LAUGH, TO LOVE, TO WORK OR PLAY.
TASKS LEFT UNDONE MUST STAY THAT WAY;
I FOUND THAT PLACE AT THE

EAGLES OF DISTINCTION

The Eagle Yearbook Staff would like to salute those Eagles who have soared to the highest heights in their respective endeavors. These persons have opened doors and offered support to others throughout the country. In all their accomplishments they serve as ambassadors of our great institution. We are extremely grateful for their contributions to society.

Jason Smoots

Olympic hopeful, Jason Smoots is a proud member of North Carolina Central University's track team. Growing up in Gadsen, Alabama, Smoots has always enjoyed racing and today he pursues his dream by adding to the talent and grace of the Eagle track team. He is a five time national champion in collegiate track. Smoots, along with three others, represented the U.S. team in the World Cup in Madrid, Spain for the 4x100 meter relay. The relay team won gold with a time of 37.95 seconds, setting a new track record. All of Jason Smoots' hard work and dedication is paying off. Smoots is still going for the gold and looking forward for a chance to be on the 2004 Olympic team. The Eagle family proudly supports our very own, Mr. Jason Smoots!

Katerina Glosova

Katerina Glosova has done nothing but succeed since she first stepped on the verdant greens here at North Carolina Central University. Glosova, a native of Cernotin, Czech Republic, recently added another trophy to her collection this year, by winning her fourth straight CIAA Cross Country title for NCCU. Katrina is also a NCAA Division II National Champion in the 800m for indoor track and field.

Thomas Booker Poole

Dedicated to his gifted talent, Thomas Booker Poole paints the Durham Community with grace and expertise. A studio art major at NCCU, Poole aspires in paintings to bring attention to himself, and to the life of children which he paints frequently.

The sloping hills, the verdant green,
The lovely blossoms' beauteous sheen
Surround our college proud and gay,
Where wave our colors, maroon and gray.

What matters it how far we roam,
Our thoughts will oft return to home,
And hearts will e'er be true to thee,
Our Alma Mater, N.C.C.

Refrain:

Then Rah! Rah! Rah!
For our colors so gay!

Dear old N.C.C.'s Maroon and Gray:
Thy Sons and Daughters will honor thee,
Dear old N.C.C.

II

We've gathered here to fit our lives,
As from the darkness light revives;
So let us hail, both night and day,
Our glorious colors, Maroon and Gray.
We'll ever love and honor thee,
For thou hast taught us loyalty
Then let our watchword, "Service" be
To Alma Mater, N.C.C.

III

You send us forth with hearts of love
So like a blessing from above,
And from the path we'll never stray,
Our dear Alma Mater, Maroon and Gray
We'll work and fight, we'll win our way.
When duty calls, we shall obey
And may we're return to thee,
Our Alma Mater, N.C.C.
